

IMAGE CREDITS

Symbolism and Visual Metaphor Video:

Confiance... Ses Amputations Se Poursuivent Methodiquement. (n.d.). Retrieved from <https://streetsofsalem.files.wordpress.com/2013/01/octopus-map-churchill-1942-vichy-france1.jpg>

Indie Moet Vrij. (1944). Retrieved from <https://s-media-cache-ak0.pinimg.com/236x/18/2f/59/182f59cb643476ae9a179fa9cd51906e.jpg>

Kokorekin, A. (1941). Death to the Fascist Beast. Retrieved from <http://www.gettyimages.ch/detail/nachrichtenfoto/world-war-ii-propaganda-poster-depicting-a-russian-nachrichtenfoto/52778725>

Schweitzer, H. (1928). Retrieved from <https://propagandaguerra.files.wordpress.com/2015/01/15-serpente-marxista.jpg>

The United States Marines. (n.d.). Retrieved from <https://sociorocketnewsen.files.wordpress.com/2013/01/59b904de.jpg?w=580>

This is the Enemy. (n.d.). Retrieved from <http://historicalphotosdaily.blogspot.kr/search/label/WW2%20Propaganda%20Posters>

Elements of Visual Design Video:

Avenge Pearl Harbor. (n.d.). Retrieved from http://democracyroosevel.blogspot.kr/2015_02_01_archive.html

Brey, Laura. (1917). On Which Side of the Window Are You. Retrieved from <http://www.learnnc.org/lp/editions/ww1posters/5040>

Ein Volk, Ein Reich, Ein Fuhrer. (1939). Retrieved from <http://content.cdlib.org/ark:/28722/bk0007t783w/>

Flagg, J.M. (1917). I Want You For U.S. Army. Retrieved from <https://upload.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/commons/1/1d/Unclesamwantyou.jpg>

Flagg, J. M. (1942). "Want Action? Join U.S. Marine Corps". Retrieved from http://americanhistory.si.edu/collections/search/object/nmah_450777

Grohe, G. E. (1942). He's Watching You. Retrieved from <http://poulwebb.blogspot.kr/2015/05/world-war-2-propaganda-posters-part-2.html>

He's Coming South. (1942). Retrieved from <https://www.awm.gov.au/collection/ARTV09225/>

National Cash Register Company. (n.d.). Remember Pearl Harbor. Retrieved from <http://www.republicanassemblies.org/remembering-pearl-harbor/>

Their Lives Are in Our Hands. Let's Keep 'em Firing! (1942). Retrieved from https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Their_lives_are_in_our_hands._Let%27s_keep_%60em_firing%5E_-_NARA_-_534907.jpg

You Think the War Will End Soon? Go Ahead Take the Day Off! (1943). Retrieved from https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:%22YOU_THINK_WAR_END_SOON._GO_AHEAD_TAKE_DAY_OFF.%22_-_NARA_-_516234.jpg